

Sample Student

123 Main Street, Cobleskill, NY 12043
samplestudent@cobleskill.edu
518-518-5185

---

Summary of Qualifications

- Outstanding understanding of small and large animal physiology
- Awareness of animal care and restraint methods and techniques
- Knowledgeable about animal assessment including observations and history, IV insertion, endotracheal tubes, and surgery procedure including dentals
- Experienced with fluid collection, analysis, and documentation
- Exceptional customer relations and time management skills

Education

State University of New York College at Cobleskill, Cobleskill, NY
Bachelor of Technology, Animal Science
Anticipated May 2021, GPA: 3.48

Associate in Applied Science, Animal Industry
May 2019, GPA: 3.03

Coursework

Animal Pathology	Animal Health
Small Animal Management	Anatomy of Domestic Animals
Veterinary Practice Management	Domestic Animal Behavior

Related Experience

Livestock Barn Student Assistant September 2017 – Present
SUNY Cobleskill Cobleskill, NY

- Complete morning and evening chores including feeding and giving water to livestock, cleaning stalls, and administering medicine
- Monitor herd health and notify barn manager of any concerns
- Observe Veterinarian during visits and restrain animals for examinations
- Milk cows, feed colostrum to calves, and assist with husbandry
- Participate in other farm chores such as haying, lawn care and snow removal as needed

Veterinary Assistant Summers 2017 - 2018
Concord Veterinary Center Smallville, NY

- Restrain animals during blood collection, examinations, and surgeries
- Collect blood and perform basic microscopic and laboratory work
- Clean and prepare rooms before and after surgeries and office visits
- Follow instructions from Veterinarian to fill prescriptions
- Support office by performing standard office and receptionist duties

Additional Experience

Kitchen Staff Summers 2015 - 2017
Football Dream World Small Town, NY

- Collaborated with other kitchen staff to prepare food for over 500 people/day
- Provided excellent customer service while taking orders and serving food
- Maintained a clean and organized work environment at all times
- Remained calm and efficient in a fast-paced, stressful work environment

Collegiate Activities

Pre-Vet Club Vice President, August 2018 – Present (Member since 2017)
Catskill Humane Society Volunteer, 2017 – Present
Tender Mercy Horse Rescue Volunteer, 2017 - 2019